AFFIDAVIT OF MARK ANTHONY LOVELY

1. Defendant Mark Anthony Lovely is not a 14th Amendment U.S. Citizen.
2. The individual Income Tax is an in-direct, uniform, excise tax.
3. Liability for the Income Tax is by exercising a government granted privilege or involvement in a federally taxable activity.
4. Defendant Mark Anthony Lovely has not been involved in any federally taxable activities, or exercised any government granted privileges.
5. The IRS has already agreed that several taxyears have no tax liability, and have applied refunds to other years which also have no tax liability.
6. North Carolina Constitution Art. V. Sec. 1 No capitation to be levied:
No poll or capitation tax shall be levied by the General Assembly or by any county, city or town, or other taxing unit.
7. North Carolina Constitution Art. V. Sec. 2. State and Local taxation:
(2) Classification. Only the General Assembly shall have the power to classify property for taxation, which power shall be exercised only on a State-wide basis and shall not be delegated. No class of property shall be taxed except by uniform rule, and every classification shall be made by general law uniformly applicable in every county, city and town, and other unit of local government.

8. All North Carolina Taxes are in-direct, uniform, excise taxes, which are predicated on ones having exercised a government granted privilege, or involvement in a federally connected activity.

9. The USDOJ in Diversied Metal Products, Inc. v T-Bow Company Trust, Internal Revenue Service, and Steve Morgan 93-405-E-EJL in it's Answer and Claim said:

“Denies that the Internal Revenue Service is an agency of the United States Government...”
